	4 - Superior	3 - Good	2 - Satisfactory	1 - Needs Improvement
Use of Case Law	Used all case law provided and had relevant connections to arguments being made with the brief.	Used all the cases provided but had an unclear connection to point being made or argument relevance	Some case materials were used and had some sort of connection to the case and argument	Very few to no cases were used and the connection to the argument was not very clear.
Use of Facts in Case	Contains all the specifics of the case and does not add anything other than as stated within the case	Contain a good amount of information from the case but leave out some information that could have been useful for argument	Does not have a sufficient amount of details about the case but does refer to the case and creates a connection to argument	No information from the facts of the case is used and or the facts were misinterpreted or misrepresented
Argument Structure	Arguments were well structured and create a very cohesive presentation	Arguments are related to questions and have relation to case materials	Arguments are present and are structured but could use a little more work to make clear points	Arguments are not structured or clear and lack connection to points being made
Addressing Arguments for Issue	All issues are addressed and answered clearly, relevant, and with supporting case material	All issues are answered and addressed with some supporting case material	Some issues were answered with some support of case materials	Few questions were addressed with little support from case materials
Brief Organization	Brief is well organized with a filled-out table of contents and authorities. Arguments are clearly listed and provided. All case materials are correctly cited.	The brief is organized and easy to read and follow. All tables of contents are labeled and page numbered correctly.	The brief is organized but some pages were left empty or unfinished. Hard to follow along or find necessary details.	The brief is not organized at all. The table of contents is missing or empty. The table of authorities is missing or empty. And the arguments are hard to find or follow.
